EMMA MURPHY

Dear Resident,

My name is Emma Murphy and I am the Fianna Fáil Local Area Representative here in the Rathfarnham Local Electoral Area. I am 29 years old and work in the field of International Development. As a native of Ballyboden I attended Scoil Naomh Pádraig, and Sancta Maria College, Ballyroan before achieving a Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science and a Master of Arts in Peace and Development Studies at the University of Limerick. I am currently employed as the General Manager of the International Non-Governmental Organisation, Amawele, based in South Dublin.

I am working hard in the area to deliver solutions to issues which matter to you and to your community. I aim to assist you in any way possible and hope that by providing a strong voice that I can. If you feel that I can be of any assistance to you or to your local area please feel free to contact me.

EMMA'S PRIORITIES

- EDUCATION: I have a personal interest in school completion and my priority is to ensure that the necessary tools required for school completion and further education are accessible.
- JOBS: Our local economy needs to be strengthened through increased engagement with local business associations
- PUBLIC AMENITIES: I will prioritise the provision and maintenance of recreational and community facilities by working closely with Resident Associations, Estate Management and Community Organisations.
- YOUTH: I am extremely aware of the issues surrounding our youth and I will champion youth specific projects and activities in the local communities.
